

Rules for using the EverFast-free Service

These Rules contain general indications relating to the functioning and modalities for use of the EverFast-free Service and, jointly with the General Contract Conditions, the Schedule for Subscription to the Service, the Privacy Information and the Informative Documentation, constitutes the Contract for the use of the EverFast-free Service.

1. EverFast-free Service: the EverFast-free Service consists of authorisation to access the Internet in WiFi mode from the Locations forming part of the WiFi-Network, using the appropriate credentials for access, which are personal and which may not be transferred to third parties.

2. Credentials for access: The credentials for access are made up of a User ID, which corresponds to the ID number shown on the back of the ID Card, and a password that will be issued to the User on Registration.

3. Membership card: A candidate for membership may activate the service giving access to the EverFast WiFi-Network by sending the appropriate electronic form (Schedule for Subscription), accessible at the URL <https://reg.wifi-network.it>, filled in with all the data requested. The service may be used as soon as the Supplier sends the Candidate, including through a download, the credentials for access to the Service.

4. Privacy: to obtain authentication and the subsequent authorisation to use the EverFast WiFi-Network Service it is also necessary to give assent to the informative note on Privacy as set out in Art. 17 of the General Contract Conditions.

5. Free nature of the Service: the EverFast-free Service is FREE OF CHARGE and may be used without distinction from any Location forming part of the WiFi-Network, but without prejudice to the right of individual Locations to set rules for the days and/or times at which the service is available, according to their own needs.

6. Browsing: browsing on the Internet must conform to the current legal norms governing telecommunications.

7. Responsibilities of the Location: The Location should be considered as a "Public terminal without supervision for on-line communications or point of access to the Internet by means of the use of wireless technology". The costs related to the acquisition of personal data from persons authorised for access, monitoring operations and storage of the related data are exclusively the responsibility of the Supplier as set out in the General Contract Conditions and thus may never be charged to the manager of the Location in which the service is running in relation to the continuity, quality and/or availability of the Service.

8. Users Service: The Supplier provides to Users the e-mail address: support@wifi-network.eu, which may be used for technical information about the use of the EverFast-free WiFi-Network Service.
